INFELDERS OF CLUBS ARE ABOUT EQUAL
George Holmes Discounts Much of the Box Score Dope Concerning Players

By George R. Holmes.
 (United Press Staff Correspondent.) New York, Oct. 4.—All things considered, the Red Sox and Phillies will go into the coming world's championship even as the infielders. Fred Luders' terrific hitting is somewhat offset by the superior fielding ability and all round finish of Jack Barry, and so far as the rest of the inner works are concerned, it appears to be about a draw—judging solely from the way ability is reckoned in cold figures.

There is no difference worth speaking of in the combined batting and fielding averages of the two infielders.
 Both have been slugging the ball around a 260 gait, and the two fielding averages hover around close to .960.
 Comparisons, however, are held to be somewhat odious ever since the late lamented Braves walloped Cornelius Mc-Gillendy's $100,000 infield and priceless pitching staff.

There always is one thing that trips up the dope, and literally spills the beans. It can't be reckoned on, because there are no figures on it. It is the child of the heated moment—the totally unlooked for individual star that crops out in every world's series.
 Once upon a time it was Frank Baker.
 Then Joe Bush came along, and last year it was long, lean Hank Gowdy, whose fate had buffeted around the baseball world for a long time.

Gowdy, on dope, didn't stand a chance with the incomparable Wallie Schang this time last year. There were few places outside Boston's classic boundaries where the name would have been recognized on the street. But after the series even the music of cats on the backyard fence was suspiciously drawn into the semblance of the lanky catenars' moniker. Hank had dubbed along all summer hitting around .240. Yet when the big test came it found him slugging .345 under the most supremely difficult conditions possible.
 Nobody figured on Hank.

And there's probably several players with the Red Sox and Phillies whom nobody is figuring on. In the first place there are no figures. So many things can happen in a short series that it makes dope practically useless.
 Stars can go bad, as did Chief Bender in the series with the Braves last year; some luck kid may fall into a pinch hit that wins a game—any number of things can happen.

New York critics are paying a lot of attention to the difference between the two fields, and are of the opinion that in this respect, at least, the advantage goes to Philadelphia. The Philly field is much shorter, which accounts to some extent, for the great number of homers garnered by Gabby Cravath this season.
 Very few, or practically no balls are knocked out of the Boston park. Gabby is reported to have that fence distanced properly and is liable to stick one over in the grass any time. In a close battle, with a man on, that would just about wreck somebody's compari-sonship hopes. It is an undeniable fact that nearly all of Gabby's homers have been knocked while the Phillies were at home.

It looks like a remote factor before the series, but it would certainly assume elephantine proportions if it ever happened.

Grand Vaudeville Bill
Pleases Large Audience

The regular weekly bill of vaudeville from the Sullivan & Conidine circuit, which is being featured by the Grand theatre, gave very good satisfaction to the audiences at that house yesterday.
 It is a well arranged bill. Little Caruso & Co. is an excellent musical act with a Venetian stage setting of much beauty. Stanfield, Hall & Lorraine get by with exceptional credit in a suffragette farce entitled "A Quiet Woman." The Amoler Bros. is an equilib-rist turn that is at once difficult and artistic. Bertie Heron, "the minstrel maid," produces great laughter with the assistance of Milt Arusman. Owen Wright does several imitations cleverly.
 Hicks & Seymour in singing, dancing and patter, are funny. In addition to the vaudeville program is shown a laughable picture in two reels entitled "Affinities," featuring Ethel Grandis.
 The program will be repeated tonight.

SCHMIDT'S TRIAL
IS BEGUN TODAY
AT LOS ANGELES

Defendant's Charges of Improper Jury Selection Were Overruled

Los Angeles, Oct. 4.—Charges that the veniremen for the M. A. Schmidt trial jury had been improperly selected and that they were biased against Schmidt, who is accused of murder in connection with the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building, were made in Judge Frank Willis' court today by defense counsel Fairall at the opening of the trial.

District Attorney Woolwine did not deny that his detectives had investigated some of the talesmen. He contended this was a perfectly legitimate procedure. Judge Willis overruled Fairall's objections to the prospective jurors.

Court convened at 10:03 a. m. Both Schmidt and Davis Caplan appeared a few minutes later. Caplan is not on trial at this time. His hearing comes later.

After Fairall's objection to the veniremen had been overruled by Judge Willis, the work of questioning talesmen commenced.

Union labor is taking a great interest in the present trial but funds have not been freely donated. This necessitated a change in attorneys soon after Schmidt and Caplan were arrested.
 Thus far they have had several different sets of counsel. A number of labor bodies, however, quite recently pledged their support to the accused, believing in their innocence.

The big court room was besieged by a huge crowd today, extra guards being called upon to restrain those demanding admittance.

Both Schmidt and Caplan disappeared after the McNamara were captured. They vanished completely, and it was rumored both were dead. The men were caught by Burns detectives about a year ago.

Colorado Miners Voting On Rockefeller Plan

Denver, Colo., Oct. 4.—Miners among the Colorado coal camps in John D.
 Rockefeller's employ, began balloting today on his new plan of "Unionism without the Union," the scheme of collective bargaining and government of their work which he called more democratic than Unionism.

Both Rockefeller and officials of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company are confident that the plan will be adopted, but the results probably will not be known for several days.

In connection with his new industrial system, Rockefeller and his officials are anxious to wipe the slate clean of alleged offenses in the 1913-1914 strike and would welcome dismissal of all criminal cases except possibly the more flagrant.

GREEKS PROTEST.

Amsterdam, Oct. 4.—Greece has protested to France against French troops marching through Greece according to the Greek consul general here. The protest was also against a request that the first contingent of French troops landed at Salonika be permitted to march through Greece to Serbia.

Portland, Oct. 5.—Wanted in Fairfield, Connecticut, on a charge of embezzling $800 from the Aluminum Castings Company in 1911, Arthur E.
 Churchman, 35, is under arrest today.
 He will waive extradition, he said.

Churchman was confidential clerk in the office of the manager and treasurer of the company.

Since 1912 he has been an employe of the Hawley Pulp and Paper Company, at Oregon City, where he was arrested.

In days of old when knights were bold, say about 50 years ago, children did not wear the little dainty creations that now adorn their feet, with the pliable sole and foot form shape. M. L.
 Meyers, of the Meyers department store, has been presented with a pair of baby's shoes, size four, of the kind worn here 50 years ago. Not only are they made in an absolutely straight last, but the shoes have a heavy, un-bending sole, fastened by screws, and with a heavy half inch heel. All of which would indicate that learning to walk with the first pair of shoes 50 years ago must have been a painful process. The shoes were presented to Mr. Meyers by Mrs. O. Iretun, living south of the city.

Herbert Jerman and wife, of Mission Bottoms, returned today from a visit to the San Francisco exposition.
